Paid Ads Management

We build each of our campaigns to produce the best results possible. Each campaign is built based on years of research and analysis to better understand web users and different audiences. We've built PPC campaigns for a number of industries in worldwide markets.

Google Ads

Google manages billions of search queries every second, with a majority of the results containing Google Ads.

Google Shopping Ads

E-commerce businesses use Google Shopping Ads for product selling. It works just like a search campaign but has images.

Meta Ads

Facebook and Instagram are one of the most used social platforms. Both collectively as Meta are one of the best platforms for marketing.

Twitter Ads

Twitter is one of the most trusted platforms for corporates and brands. It is widely used for press releases and corporate leads.

LinkedIn Ads

LinkedIn is a professional platform with over 645 million monthly active users, with various advertisement options.

Snapchat Ads

Snapchat Ads are used to target the tech-savvy and impulse-buying young audiences, with massive reach and potential.

TikTok Ads

Providing an incremental reach, TikTok ads are majorly used to drive mass engagement. The ads are ideal for brand awareness.

Amazon Ads

Amazon is arguably the best platform for dropshipping businesses. With the ability to advertise on the platform through Amazon Ads.

YouTube Ads

YouTube is the most used video search engine in the whole world. With a massive audience, it is a perfect choice for brands.

Yahoo Ads

Yahoo Ads or Yahoo Search Marketing (YSM) is a pay-per-click ad tool with the same working model as Google and Bing.

Bing Ads

Being the default search engine of Microsoft products, Bing is also a widely used search engine.

WhatsApp Ads

WhatsApp messages have a 98% open rate, and with more than 2 billion active users it can be the perfect marketing channel.

Biography

Abida Parveen is one of the foremost exponents of Sufi music from Pakistan. She received her musical training initially from her father Ustad Ghulam Haider and later from Ustad Salamat Ali Khan of the Sham Chaurasia Gharana. Her late husband, Ghulam Hussain Sheikh mentored her and played an important role in her musical career. Today she is recognised as one of the greatest Sufi singers of all times.

She mainly sings Ghazals, Urdu love songs and her forte, Kafs, a solo genre accompanied by percussion and other instruments including the harmonium. Abida has a wide ranging repertoire of songs originally composed by Sufi poets and sings in Urdu, Sindhi, Seraiki, Punjabi, Farsi and Arabic. Read More...
